JEWISH HERITAGE FOUNDATION WELCOMES SUMMER INTERN

KANSAS CITY, MO: The Jewish Heritage Foundation of Greater Kansas City is pleased to welcome Evan Golden as its summer intern. Evan is presently a student at the University of Kansas working towards his Bachelor of Arts, with a major in Economics.

He recently concluded one semester at Tel Aviv University. Evan is a participant in the Learning for Life Summer Internship, a program of the Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City, generously funded by the Helen & Sam Kaplan Memorial Foundation.

Mr. Golden has been an active participant at KU Hillel, serving as a member of the KU Hillel Roundtable and selected as a participant to the Bina Initiative, an innovative 10-week curriculum that encourages students to think deeply about Israel and its place in their Jewish identity.

In addition to his Hillel activities, he is a member of the KU Finance Club, and was instrumental in organizing the Business Leadership Advancement (BLA) student organization.

During his semester in Israel, Evan studied Israeli Politics, Israeli Art, Israeli Environment, Jewish Identity in the Diaspora, and Hebrew. His past work experience has included Camp Counselor at Herzl Camp in Webster, Wisconsin, and Athletic Director for Camp Teko in Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota Day Camp.

Evan is a native of Plymouth, Minnesota and is the son of Ira and Shelly Golden.
